

Training Descriptor

	NO. 123-72510	AIRSIDE/LANDSIDE BASIC
<input type="checkbox"/>	Rational	Students successfully completing this course will meet the requirement as set forth by the International Civil Aviation Organization for member States to comply with current Aviation Security Standards and Practices. This is the pre-requisite course and foundation for all subsequent Aviation Security (AVSEC) courses.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Course objectives	Enable selected security personnel to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • work in and move about an airport safely; • communicate and cooperate with other airport agencies; • control the movement of people and vehicles by means of access control techniques and systems; • guard and patrol airport vulnerable areas, facilities and aircraft; • recognize weapons and explosive/incendiary devices; • inspect/screen/search passengers and baggage; • respond to airport emergency situations; and • escort people and consignments. in accordance with accepted Aviation Security Standards and Practices
<input type="checkbox"/>	Learning outcome	At the completion of instruction, students will be able to perform security duties at national and international airports in accordance with ICAO, US TSA, EC and OECS standards. Students will have a practical working knowledge of a broad spectrum of regulatory requirements and basic task oriented security duties.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Methodology	Program presentation is a combination of lecture, audio-video, PowerPoint® presentations, small group discussion, and student hands-on instruments along with classroom and field practicum.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Student evaluative instruments	Pretest, post test, In-class workbook activities, instructor observation of demonstrated behaviors, student participation and feedback in small group and whole group activities, Sand Table exercises and observed field practicum
<input type="checkbox"/>	General Description	This program is designed to provide Level I instruction to Airport Security Forces performing duties as the primary law enforcement /security agency on site. Skills include: Access control, anti-sabotage procedures, passenger and baggage screening and inter-agency cooperation. Students learn in interactive, hands-on environment, taking a-learning-by-doing approach to tasks and procedures.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Supplemental Resource Materials	ICAO Annex 17, Amendment 10, 11 and Annex 18 Documents 8973, and 9683 and OECS NASP, US 49 CFR and related EU/ ECAC Documents